WRAPPED IN "STONE"

Marble and terrazzo — mainstays in beautiful kitchens and bathrooms — are popping up in unexpected places, like on this year's holiday paper. This gorgeous wrapping has the power to make a practical trinket feel luxe. Don't have time to grab a roll? Take a quick pic of your marble countertop or colorful tile, print it and use it to cover a small gift on the fly.

REGIFTING: 👍 OR 👎?

You can do it without guilt (yay!), says etiquette expert Elaine Swann. "The key is to regift strategically, not randomly," she says. Give a vanilla candle to a friend who loves that scent, or a cheese board to your sister who entertains on the regular. Just don't regift to people in the same circle.

MY HOMETOWN CLEVELAND

Tara Berger, owner of One Stylish Party, an entertaining blog and online party planning boutique, reveals all the cutest spots around her town.

→ shop

"Fount is my go-to for sophisticated leather handbags and accessories. I have the Finley Clutch, which is the perfect size to carry a few essentials for a night out on the town."

→ eat

"I have a sweet tooth, so you may find me at Brewnuts, a quirky donut bar featuring local beer, coffee and beer-infused donuts, or at Mitchell's Ice Cream—the Caramel Fudge Brownie ice cream scooped into a freshly made waffle cone is my personal fave."

→ explore

"The Arcade is an iconic Cleveland landmark. It opened in 1890 as an indoor shopping mall (one of the first in America!), and now it houses a hotel, shops and restaurants. As a party stylist, I dream of one day planning an event in this beautiful venue."
