

HOTELLIER

THE MAGAZINE FOR HOTEL EXECUTIVES / JULY - AUGUST 2019 $4

Lasting Legacy

Hilton celebrates 100 years of exceeding guest expectations

GREAT ESCAPES

In-room wellness options are coming of age

CHALLENGES + OPPORTUNITIES

Hotel operators address issues impacting the industry

FORM MEETS FUNCTION

A look at 21st century kitchen design

CHAMPIONING CHANGE

Coverage of the annual WITH Summit

INSPIRED TASTES

Hoteliers seek new strategies to raise F&B revenue

THE TOP 50 REPORT

30
CELEBRATING years

hotelliermagazine.com

CONTENTS

VOLUME 31, NO. 5 | JULY/AUGUST 2019

FEATURES

- 9 CHAMPIONING CHANGE
Coverage of the annual WITH Summit
- 14 KEEPING WELL
Tips for improving hotel wellness offerings
- 15 AHEAD BY A CENTURY
Hilton celebrates 100 years of hotel excellence
- 21 BUILT TO LAST
A record-setting 2018 paved the way for future growth
- 25 THE TOP 50 REPORT
A ranking of the country's top hotel operators
- 33 RISING TO THE CHALLENGE
A look at issues impacting the hotel industry
- 41 SPIRIT OF SUCCESS
Meet a few of this year's Spirit Award winners
- 44 GREAT ESCAPES
In-room wellness options can be key differentiators
- 47 FORM MEETS FUNCTION
A look at trends in hotel kitchen design
- 51 INSPIRED TASTES
Tips for updating F&B offerings
- 54 KEEPING IN TOUCH
Customer Relationship Management is changing the guest experience
- 57 OWNING A SLICE
Vacation ownership remains a popular travel option

DEPARTMENTS

- 2 EDITOR'S PAGE
- 5 CHECKING IN
- 60 HOTELIER
Alexi Hakim, InterContinental Toronto Centre, Toronto

ON THE COVER

➔ Vito Curalli, executive director of Sales, Canada, Latin America & International, Hilton (left) and Neeraj Kaul, GM, Hilton Garden Inn Toronto/Brampton