The CHIRP Charitable Trust

Confidential Hazardous Incident Reporting Programme
Director (Maritime)

KEEN TO USE YOUR MARITIME EXPERIENCE TO IMPROVE MARITIME SAFETY?

THE ROLE

CHIRP receives safety-related reports from seafarers worldwide. We follow these up on a confidential basis in order to detect safety issues, identify trends and determine risk potential.

We are seeking a part-time Director (Maritime) to manage, promote and develop the Programme through a variety of traditional and electronic media. The Director is responsible for promoting the Programme to sponsors in industry and on-going liaison with them.

The appointment will be by consultancy contract, with an expected but flexible time commitment amounting to about ten days per month. The post will require occasional attendance at our office in Fleet, Hampshire, although most of the work can be performed by distance/home working.

The start date is flexible in order to encourage applications by candidates with the most appropriate experience.

A remuneration package is available, reflecting the limited resources of a charitable trust, but a passion for maritime safety will be the main motivator. For further details, please phone 07917 732 722 or 01252 378 947 or send an e-mail to john.rose@chirp.co.uk.

APPLICATIONS

To apply, send an e-mail to lan.dugmore@chirp.co.uk or write to The Chief Executive, The CHIRP Charitable Trust, Centaur House, Ancells Business Park, Fleet, Hampshire, GU51 2UJ

The closing date for applications is 18th August 2017.

DESIRED PROFILE

- Established reputation as a leader with a strong safety ethos.
- Experience in the application of best practice in safety management in a maritime organisation.
- Good interpersonal and communication skills.
- Ability to promote the Programme effectively across a wide range of stakeholders and sponsors.
- Good written English.
- Competent in Microsoft Office and preparation of presentations.
- Competent to manage a budget.

The CHIRP Charitable Trust is an equal opportunity employer.

TRAINEE MARINE PILOTS

Starting salary £47,671
per annum inclusive

We're looking for suitably qualified and enthusiastic individuals to fill current and future vacancies for the role of marine pilots. You will possess a STCW II / 2 (masters unlimited) Certificate of Competency, hold a valid ENG 1 (or equivalent) and have previous Pilotage experience and/or held command or chief officer's appointment. Applicants with lesser qualifications will be considered based on considerable relevant experience.

The ideal candidate will be an excellent communicator and have the motivation and commitment to learn such a busy and complex river

In return, we offer a rewarding career on one of the most challenging and diverse waterways, a structured training programme, contributory pension scheme, private health cover and generous annual leave entitlement.

Please visit www.pla.co.uk for more information about the PLA's Pilotage Service and whether this exciting career choice is right for you.

To apply please send us your CV to recruitment@pla.co.uk or download an application form from our website.

Please note we do not sponsor work permit applications. you must be eligible to work in the UK.

This is an on-going recruitment process and interviews will be held throughout the year.
