What's on?

Managing marine risks in the Pacific North West British Columbia Branch Seminar

10 - 12 May

Victoria Marriott, Inner Harbour, Victoria B.C.

<http://nibconference2017.com/>

How do we teach mariners and industrial partners to recognize risk, and to learn from failure to anticipate known and unknown risks? And what is the role of policy, regulation and technology in risk mitigation?

Tanker Management and Self Assessment ³

A Best Practice Guide
Third Edition 2017

This book is an essential tool for tanker vessel operators in achieving high standards of ship management and safety. A useful complement to IMO Conventions and Codes, this third edition has been comprehensively updated to reflect current legislation and emerging issues, and incorporates feedback from companies and users of previous editions of TMSA, as well as providing guidance on OCIMF's view of industry best practice.

A Catalogue of Disasters

Victor R Gibson

This book is about accidents and incidents in the offshore oil industry, principally to mobile units and the ships supporting them. 29 accidents are analysed, including the Ocean Ranger disaster, the Rowan Gorilla I sinking, the Bourbon Dolphin capsized, the Deepwater Horizon blowout and the Kulluk grounding. Plus explanations of how it all works, conclusions, and glossary of terms. 381 A4 pages, many colour illustrations.

"I thought it was a cracking book with so much in it to make you think." Michael Grey.
